

BULL & STEIN®

summer's eve special!

Dear clients, dear friends, with a series of exhibitions this spring and summer in Melbourne, London, and Shanghai, BULL & STEIN has expanded its activities and is focused next on launching spectacular new sculpture fruit at

Paris Maison & Objet 2024
hall 7 - Scènes d'Intérieures

Last year, we braved the wind and maintained our prices stable. However, this year, a price adjustment has become unavoidable.

For those of you who had hoped to meet us at Maison & Objet next week, we will maintain our current prices instead, throughout September!

TRANSPARENCES

made in Portugal

BULL&STEIN is proud to present its collection of glass apples „Transparences” – sparkling and bright, hand-blown, apple shaped sculptures. The Brazilian artist, Lisa Pappon, has inspired herself from the beauty and magic of a glacial universe, fairylike and extraterrestrial.

ecological sustainability

Over the past 5 years, team BULL & STEIN has consistently enhanced the supply chain for raw materials and achieved a notable reduction in the company's ecological footprint by repatriating manufacturing, fabrication, packing, and logistics to Europe. We hold European craftsmanship and expertise in highest esteem, collaborating with passionate and skilled workers and craftsmen. You are cordially invited to explore our new showroom in Porto, Portugal:

Back to the wall :

"Initially, BULL & STEIN was looking for a different style of painting on their sculpture fruit, and we developed the iconic graffiti style for BULL & STEIN objects. Graffiti is about expressing oneself; it is an art without limits. When I create a new piece of art, I play with different colours and get inspired by the flow of the paints I use. Graffiti art is very dynamic, as is life, you set out in one direction but you often have to adjust your course."
